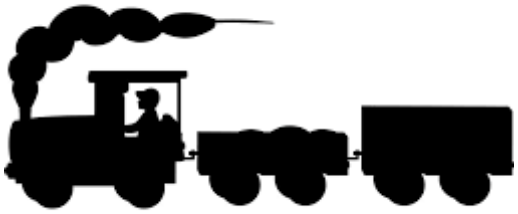
Guess The Transport


Have a look at the shadows along with your child and ask them to guess what form of transport they are. Encourage children to say and get familiar with the names of each transport.