

Let's Learn My Name
(All About Me)

Mirror Games

These types of games help babies and toddlers to explore what they're little faces can do and promotes their Social and Emotional development

Get your little one to look in the mirror whilst you say their name.

Also have a go at copying each other's expressions and play a game of peek- a – boo, moving the mirror away and then bringing it to their face, saying 'boo!'.

