

Caterpillar finger print counting

What you need

- Paper
- Green paint

How to

Pour a little paint in a tray and let your child dip a fingertip into the paint, then children can print their finger onto paper making green fingerprints to look like a caterpillar.

As children print their finger, they are to be encouraged to count each fingerprint.