

Toy Washing Station

What you need

- Dirty toys
- Water
- Large container or bathtub
- Shower gel
- Washing up sponge or flannel

How to?

Set out the washing station with soapy water and sponges.

Children can then go around the house picking up the toys they think have the most germs then wash them.

This activity can also be extended by children helping to clean surfaces around the house getting off all the germs.